

Audrey Goodfriend:

I had a will and I had the powers of attorney, but that was six years ago. And I felt maybe I needed more than that, like a trust.

Audrey Goodfriend:

My name is Audrey Goodfriend. I live on Long Island , New York. My daughter, and son-in-law, went to Ellen to update their wills and estate planning. I'm 91 years old, and I thought it was time that I did it too. I found her very knowledgeable, very thorough, very easy to talk to, and she took a lot of time finding out my particular circumstances and needs. We did Zoom, she told my son-in-law to get off the line so she could talk to me privately. She just wanted to make sure that everything that she was doing for me was what I wanted, without any influence from any other people. I think that was wonderful.

Audrey Goodfriend:

I would absolutely recommend Ellen to someone like my daughter and son-in-law. They had a young family and now they're in their mid-sixties, so they had to redo their wills. And even for someone like me, I'm 91, I have absolute confidence that what she did was just perfect for my needs. Ellen gave me peace of mind.
